JUST ADDED: Healthcare Strategy Expert Vice Admiral Forrest Faison III

CLEVELAND - March 6, 2020 - The impact of the coronavirus is being felt here in Northeast Ohio even before a single case of COVID-19 has been confirmed. The Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association is excited to announce a new addition to our Hot Talk: Coronavirus on Tuesday, March 10th at Noon at CMBA.

Vice Admiral Forrest Faison III served as a senior military commander with extensive experience in medical education and innovation. He was recently appointed as senior vice president for research & innovation/chief healthcare strategy officer at Cleveland State University.
Each day we hear about more cases and even deaths due to coronavirus. If this virus becomes a wider medical emergency, what is the legal impact on employees and workers, those in health care and patients who might be ordered into quarantine?

Previously announced panelists include Karen Giffen, Managing Partner at Giffen & Kaminski, LLC, and Bruce Hennes, President of Hennes Communications specializing in crisis management.

Because there is so much concern and possible misinformation about coronavirus in our community, we encourage the public and media to attend with questions and ideas.

Hot Talks are held the second Tuesday of each month at CMBA. They are free, open forums to learn and share ideas. Bring a lunch and join us for this important discussion.

If you can't be here in person, you can watch and participate via Facebook Live.

Hot Talk - Coronavirus
Tuesday, March 10, 2020
Noon - 1:15pm
Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association
1375 E. 9th Street

About the CMBA

The nonprofit Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association operates as a center for legal professionalism in the region, promoting the highest ethical and professional standards. Serving the largest legal community in the state, the CMBA has more than 4,000 members. Learn more at clemetrobar.org.

###