Passage of Issue 108 for CMSD Clinches the Cleveland Trifecta

Thank you, Cleveland!

Because of our individual and collective efforts, last night we clinched a Cleveland trifecta: first an NBA Championship for the Cavaliers; then an American League Championship for our Indians; and now the passage of Issue 108 in support of the Cleveland Metropolitan School District and our community's children.

Through our votes, we have proven once again that Clevelanders can accomplish amazing things when we pull together.

As a long-time, dedicated partner of the Cleveland Metropolitan School District and its tireless Champion Executive Officer, Eric Gordon, the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association looks forward to continuing our collaborations with CMSD and providing pathways of opportunity for students to pursue their dreams. We know those dreams will help bring our city ongoing success in the years to come.

Thank you, Cleveland!

Richard D. Manoloff, CMBA President
