World-renowned journalists and legal professionals to discuss the media’s role in high profile trials

The Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association has assembled a lineup of over a dozen world-renowned journalists, attorneys and media professionals for a half-day seminar.

Topics of discussion will include the latest legal issues and developments in media, law and technology relating to high profile cases and litigation.

Presented in partnership with The Ohio University, E.W. Scripps School of Journalism, and The Press Club of Cleveland.

Panelists include:

- Pulitzer Prize Winner, Washington Post, Wes Lowery
- Department of Justice Reporter, Washington Post, Matt Zapotosky
- White House Correspondent, USA Today, Greg Korte

For a full list of speakers, visit our website: CleMetroBar.org/Media18

Topics explored:

- Free Press/Fair Trial: A Legal Overview
- The Media Perspective: Covering High Profile Trials and Legal Issues in the Internet Age
- Tips from the Trial Masters: High Profile Cases
- Maintaining Media and Legal Ethics in High Profile Cases

WHEN: Thursday, June 14th | 1 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.
WHERE: CMBA Conference Center, 1375 E. 9th Street, 2nd Floor, Cleveland, OH 44114
PRICING: $40 (media & non-attorney attendees)

>> Click here to register

About the CMBA
The nonprofit Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association operates as a center for legal professionalism in the region, promoting the highest ethical and professional standards. Serving the largest legal community in the state, the CMBA has more than 5,200 members. Learn more at CleMetroBar.org.

###